It's time to pack your bags...

The Harbor Mates Club is back on the road again!

My name is Laurie Adams, and I am excited to be your new Harbor Mates Director! I've worked at The Lake Bank for over twenty years and lived in Two Harbors all of my life, so I know many of you already. Some of you may remember when I filled in a couple of years ago when the Harbor Mates went to the Chanhassen Dinner Theatre to see Sister Act. For those of you that I haven't had the pleasure yet to meet, I look forward to getting to know you!

As you can imagine, I've been busy trying to plan a year's worth of trips in just a few (three!) short weeks. That's why I'm asking for YOUR help. I've included a section in this newsletter where you can tell me where YOU would like to go and what YOU would like to see and do. You can also stop by or give me a call, because I value your input and want to know your ideas! This information will help me prepare trips and activities that are of interest to our members and their friends.

In the meantime, I've already put together a few trips to places that are old favorites while adding in some new locations and activities that I think you might enjoy. I've also got several trips in the "pipeline", so be on the lookout for more information on these upcoming opportunities.

I also want to remind you that many of the activities have strict deadlines, so it is important that you reserve AND pay for your reservation ASAP. Otherwise, I may have to cancel an event if I don't receive enough commitments to meet the venue's minimum requirements. Therefore, if you are interested in a trip, please sign up and pay early!

I am looking forward to a wonderful year of travel and new adventures with the Harbor Mates Club! I hope you'll join me on some (or all!) of these fun trips!

This and That.....

What you're about to read in this newsletter is all that I've had time to arrange in the three weeks since I accepted this additional position at The Lake Bank. (It's also all that I could fit in this initial newsletter!) I have more ideas that I've already been working on including a mystery trip that should be really fun and a "Casino Crawl". I'll have more details about those two activities (and more!) in my next newsletter. I'm also really looking forward to hearing where you would like to go and what you would like to do. You can also tell me what you don't like to do, because that is valuable information, too.

As a reminder: You aren't officially registered for a trip UNTIL YOU HAVE PAID for it. If a trip sells out, those who have registered but not paid will be moved to the waitlist. Those who have paid will remain on the official list.

More of This and That...Cancellation Policies

If the HMC ends up having to cancel a trip due to insufficient registrations, you will get a full refund. If you have to cancel out on a trip that you have already booked, I will do my best to get you a refund. Some events and activities have deadlines or other factors such as reserved seating or minimum participant requirements, so you may not be able to receive a full refund in those cases.

Reasons to travel with the HMC:

You can sit back and relax, because all of the travel arrangements have been made for you. You will get to ride on a quiet and comfortable motor coach that will usually drop us off right at the front door of the venue. No need to park and walk a distance. You're dropped off front and center! You also don't have to worry about directions, traffic on the road, or driving. Our bus driver takes care of all of that! The best reason is you get to spend time with friends----both old and new. Please come and join us. We'll make you feel welcome!

You are invited to come and join me for a trip to the Wisconsin Dells and The Palace Theater as we enjoy a lovely meal and production at this dinner theater. We will be going to my ABSOLUTELY FAVORITE MUSICAL EVER---Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat!! Trust me when I say this is something that everyone should see at least one or ten times!

This musical by Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber features catchy music (including "Any Dream Will Do" and "Go, Go, Go Joseph") and tells about the trials and triumphs of Joseph, Israel's favorite son, based on Genesis 37-50.

In the story, Joseph's eleven brothers become jealous when their father, Jacob, makes it clear that Joseph is his favorite by giving him a beautiful coat of many colors. The brothers decide to kidnap Joseph, steal his coat, sell him into slavery, and tell their dad that Joseph is dead.

While working as a slave, Joseph moved up the ranks working for an Egyptian noble, Potiphar, but he soon ends up in jail after refusing the amorous advances of Potiphar's wife. While in prison, Joseph discovered his ability to interpret dreams and soon found himself helping out the Pharaoh (who happens to look like Elvis!) during Egypt's famine.

Back at home, the famine has caught up with Joseph's brothers who now express regret at selling him and deceiving their father. Will Joseph and his brothers ever be reunited? Will Jacob ever find out that his favorite son is still alive? You're going to need to come along with me on this trip to find out the answers to these questions!

Sophie dreams of having her dad walk her down the aisle, but there is one problem. She doesn't know his name! Before the big day, Sophie discovers her mom's diary and reads about three past boyfriends who may fit the bill. She sends letters to the men inviting them to come to her wedding---but signs them from her mom, Donna. That's when everything starts to spin out of control!

Come and join me at the Chanhasen Dinner Theatre as we enjoy a wonderful meal, production, and the music from some of ABBA's legendary hits such as "SOS", "Take a Chance on Me", "Dancing Queen", "Mamma Mia", and my favorite, "The Winner Takes It All"! Mamma Mia was one of Broadway's longest running hit musicals. You aren't going to want to miss this one!
